Bilingual Authorization Information

Effective fall 2007, specific CSET: LOTE subtests may be used to satisfy the examination requirement for a Bilingual, Crosscultural, Language and Academic Development (BCLAD®) Certificate. This certificate authorizes the holder to provide specialized instruction to English Learners. Types of instruction authorized by the BCLAD Certificate include instruction in English Language Development (ELD), specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE), instruction for primary-language development, and content instruction delivered in the primary language. See the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) Web site at www.ctc.ca.gov and/or the current CSET registration bulletin, available on the CSET Web site at www.ctcexams.nesinc.com, for more information about certification requirements.

To verify competence in the knowledge and skill areas necessary for effective teaching of English Learners for the BCLAD Certificate, candidates must pass CSET: Arabic Subtests II*, IV, and V. The test structure for CSET: Arabic (used toward the BCLAD Certificate) is shown in the table below.

CSET: Arabic (used toward the BCLAD Certificate)

*This Arabic Subtest II is the same Arabic Subtest II that can be used toward the Single Subject Teaching Credential. Passage of this subtest is not required if (1) you hold a valid, non-emergency Single Subject or Standard Secondary Teaching Credential with a major in Arabic or (2) you hold a three-year or higher degree from a foreign institution in which all instruction is delivered in Arabic and the institution is equivalent in status to a regionally accredited institution of higher education in the United States.

Annotated List of Resources for CSET: Arabic

This list identifies some resources that may help candidates prepare to take CSET: Arabic. While not a substitute for coursework or other types of teacher preparation, these resources may enhance a candidate's knowledge of the content covered on the examination. The references listed are not intended to represent a comprehensive listing of all potential resources. Candidates are not expected to read all of the materials listed below, and passage of the examination will not require familiarity with these specific resources. A brief summary is provided for each reference cited. Resources are organized alphabetically and by content domain order in subtest order.

General Linguistics

Ellis, Rod. (1997). Second Language Acquisition. New York, NY: Oxford University Press.

This book covers the essentials of second-language acquisition, including discussions of different theories and models of second-language learning.

Fromkin, Victoria; Rodman, Robert; and Hyams, Nina. (2006). An Introduction to Language (8th edition). Boston, MA: Thomson/Heinle.

This book offers a good overview of all of the major aspects of linguistics, including phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, sociolinguistics, language acquisition, and historical linguistics.

Parker, Frank, and Riley, Kathryn. (2004). Linguistics for Non-Linguists: A Primer with Exercises (4th edition). Needham Heights, MA: Allyn & Bacon.

This book offers a solid introduction to linguistics, including discussions of speech act theory and first- and second-language acquisition.
